CLINTON viewed the email as a typical deliberation document and had no stated the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email some forwarded to her and she reliad on the judgment of the career foreign service officers and others in the "thick" of what was happening. CLINTON had no reason not to rely on the people she worked with a State. CLINTON did not recall JACOB SULTAVAN using his Google email account for official business and could not say why it was used in this instance.  After reviewing an email date—with subject bing portion of the email where—with subject line—specifically—with subject line—fine—specifically—with subject line—fine—fine—fine—fine—fine—fine—fine—f	FD-302a (Rev. 10-6-95)	b1 b3
CLINTON viewed the email as a typical deliberation document and had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated more received on the judgment of the career foreign service officers and others in the "hick." of what was happening, CLINTON bad no reason not to rely on the people she worked with at State. CLINTON did not recall JACOB SULLIVAN using his Google email account for official business and could not say why it was used in this instance.    After reviewing an email date   With subject   LINTON identified the being representative of the emphasis he placed on handling information appropriately. CLINTON had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information appropriately. CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine and classified information. CLINTON determined as possible, but had to deal with a "nash" of news reports on drong classified information. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON unde
CLINTON viewed the email as a typical deliberation document and had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated more received on the judgment of the career foreign service officers and others in the "hick." of what was happening, CLINTON bad no reason not to rely on the people she worked with at State. CLINTON did not recall JACOB SULLIVAN using his Google email account for official business and could not say why it was used in this instance.    After reviewing an email date   With subject   LINTON identified the being representative of the emphasis he placed on handling information appropriately. CLINTON had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information appropriately. CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated state deliberation process to determine and classified information. CLINTON determined as possible, but had to deal with a "nash" of news reports on drong classified information. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON unde
CLINTON viewed the email as a typical deliberation document and had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email was forwarded to her and she relied on the judgment of the career foreign service officers and others in the "thick" of what was happening, CLINTON had no reason not to rely on the people she worked with at State. CLINTON office the receil JACOB SULLIVAN using his Google email account for official business and could not say why it was used in this instance.  After reviewing an email date    CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically   CLINTON identified the portion of the email where   writes "let me know what you can via this channel" as being representative of the emphasis he placed on handling information appropriately. CLINTON had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information appropriately. CLINTON stated she did the best they could to not confirm drone strikes and were as careful as possible, but had to deal with a "rash" of news reports on drones. CLINTON did not recall a State policy on confirming classified information in media reports.  (S)   H-) After reviewing an email dated August 25, 2010, with subject line "Fix: NY Times article on Salehi," CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she did not remember the mail specifically. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON thought   was a competent professional who served in some of state's most difficult posts. CLINTON stated foreign-based US Embassies would have a SCIP with secure computers and phones to communicate sensitive information.  (S) H-) After reviewing an email dated December 27, 2011, with subject line "Fw: (SBU)."  CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holddays and it was o	Continuation of FD-302 of Interview of Hillary Rodham Clinton On 07/02/2016 Page 7	] ы1
Sample	concerns the displayed email contained classified information. As it relates to classification, CLINTON stated the displayed email was forwarded to her and she relied on the judgment of the career foreign service officers and others in the "thick" of what was happening. CLINTON had no reason not to rely on the people she worked with at State. CLINTON did not recall JACOB SULLIVAN using his Google	ь3
ine   CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically   CLINTON identified the portion of the email where   writes "let me know what you can via this channel" as being representative of the emphasis he placed on handling information appropriately. CLINTON had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON viewed this email as the State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State did the best they could to not confirm drone strikes and were as careful as possible, but had to deal with a "rash" of news reports on drones. CLINTON did not recall a State policy on confirming classified information in media reports.  (S   WP After reviewing an email dated August 25, 2010, with subject line "Fw: NY Times article on Salehi." CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she had no reason to doubt the judgment of the people working for her on the "front lines."  After reviewing an email dated   With subject line   Was a competent professional who served in some of State's most difficult posts. CLINTON relayed State did the best they could while considering the "constant barrage of press" trying to confirm drone strikes. CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she was not concerned the displayed email contained classified formation.  (S/NW) After reviewing an email dated December 27, 2011, with subject line "FW: (SBU)."  CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holidays and it was often necessary to communicate in code or do the best you based on the property of the prop Times article on Salehi," CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information but stated she had no reason to doubt the judgment of the people working for her on the "front lines."  After reviewing an email dated with subject line CLINTON thought was a competent professional who served in some of State's most difficult posts. CLINTON relayed State did the best they could while considering the "constant barrage of press" trying to confirm drone strikes. CLINTON stated must have believed this email was "SBU" because that was how he marked it. CLINTON understood SBU to mean Sensitive But Unclassified. CLINTON stated foreign-based US Embassies would have a SCIF with secure computers and phones to communicate sensitive information.  (S/NIE) After reviewing an email dated December 27, 2011, with subject line "FW: (SBU)."  CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holidays and it was often necessary to communicate in code or do the best you could to convey the information considering the system you were using  b1  TOB SPECETA	specifically  portion of the email where  writes "let me know what you can via this channel" as being representative of the emphasis he placed on handling information appropriately. CLINTON had no concerns the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON viewed this email as the State deliberation process to determine how to respond to a news report. During her tenure, CLINTON stated State did the best they could to not confirm drone strikes and were as careful as possible, but had to deal with a "rash" of news reports on drones. CLINTON did not recall a State policy on confirming classified
After reviewing an email dated   with subject	Times article on Salehi," CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON stated she was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information but stated she had no reason to doubt
CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON thought was a competent professional who served in some of State's most difficult posts. CLINTON relayed State did the best they could while considering the "constant barrage of press" trying to confirm drone strikes. CLINTON stated must have believed this email was "SBU" because that was how he marked it. CLINTON understood SBU to mean Sensitive But Unclassified. CLINTON stated foreign-based US Embassies would have a SCIF with secure computers and phones to communicate sensitive information.  (S/NW) After reviewing an email dated December 27, 2011, with subject line "FW: (SBU)."  CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holidays and it was often necessary to communicate in code or do the best you could to convey the information considering the system you were using  b1  TOP SPERFT/
CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON was not concerned the displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holidays and it was often necessary to communicate in code or do the best you could to convey the information considering the system you were using  b1  b2  convey  b1	CLINTON stated she did not remember the email specifically. CLINTON thought was a competent professional who served in some of State's most difficult posts. CLINTON relayed State did the best they could while considering the "constant barrage of press" trying to confirm drone strikes. CLINTON stated must have believed this email was "SBU" because that was how he marked it. CLINTON understood SBU to mean Sensitive But Unclassified. CLINTON stated foreign-based US Embassies would have a SCIF with displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holidays and it was often necessary to communicate in code or do the best you could to convey the information considering the system you were using  b1  ton Specific.
10 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	displayed email contained classified information. CLINTON stated no policy or practice existed related to communicating around holidays and it was often necessary to communicate in code or do the best you
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , 	TOP SPECET/	